

Purchase of Agricultural Conservation Easement (PACE) Workshop Green Bay

What:

Gathering Waters Conservancy and the American Farmland Trust have received funding from the Wisconsin Coastal Management Program to hold a series of workshops focused on the new statewide Purchase of Agricultural Conservation Easement (PACE) program and the development of local PACE programs.

This FREE workshop will focus on the following topics:

- An overview of the state PACE program and lessons learned from the first round of PACE applications;
- A discussion of DATCP's standard conservation easement and how it could be adapted to different real world scenarios;
- An overview of the appraisal process for agricultural conservation easements;
- Opportunities to work with partners, such as land trusts, and leverage other sources funding for PACE programs.

When:

Thursday, February 24, 2011 – 12:30pm to 4:00pm

Where:

Titletown Brewery
200 Dousman Street
Green Bay, WI 54303

For more information and to RSVP, please contact Mike Carlson, Government Relations Director at Gathering Waters Conservancy – phone: 608-251-9131 ext. 13; email: carlson@gatheringwaters.org.

Please RSVP by the close of business on Friday, February 11, 2011.

For more information on the Working Lands Initiative and the state PACE program, please visit:
<http://www.wisconsinfarmland.org>